A SPUNKY GIRL MARRIED.—[From the Clinton, Iowa, Herald.]—[Sioux City last winter had a Ladie's Society, and they had a dinner, and speeches, and a general vowing all around that they would lead a single life, and eschew the naughty men forever. But it is said there is generally a black sheep in the flock, and so it seemed there was one in this. While vowing vengeance on the male sex, these deceiving sisters were dumfounded by one of their number, Miss Panthea L. Kennedy, who arose and most charmingly flung into their midst the following bit of treason to celibacy:

"Sisters in waiting—let us husbands—we have met because we can't help ourselves, to celebrate this as a day of thanksgiving, as appointed by our Chief Magistrate. But tell me, is it to us really a day of thanksgiving? No, sisters, rather should we call it a day of mourning—and for what? For husbands! Yes, sisters, for husbands, which we feel we need (at least I do.) We have all the rights of women's rights! We have all the rights we desire, if the men would only propose. Why don't the men propose, mamma, why don't the men propose? I don't know how you all feel about it, but I do know if the right man comes along and makes me an offer, I won't be at your next dinner. No, sisters, you may talk as you will about woman's independence, it is all folly; we are always dependent; and upon man. You may say what you like as to our being man's superior, or man's help-meet, or Nature's noblest work, all of which man will grant us. But what pleasure or happiness can we have in our weary pilgrimage through life without a man's protecting hand and care over us? None, sisters, none, and let others do as they will, for me, I am determined to have one. And I will here volunteer a piece of gratuitous advice, and that is, for each of you to go and do likewise. What other relation in life, so honorable as a man's companion, the wife of a loving, kind, affectionate husband? None; and in order to become such, let us cultivate and practise all those virtues that so much adorn our station, and that we will find husbands worthy of us. We know that men love us; know that in our smile exists the poet's inspiration and the poet's reward; and we also know that for us patriots have died. Man is never so happy as when in our company, or rendering us a favor, and why is it that each of us can't have one? Let us see to it while it is called to-day, so that when another Thanksgiving Day rolls around, there were not an old maid in Sioux City." Behold her reward!

MARRIED.—At the residence of Hon. A. W. Hubbard, Sioux City, Tuesday evening, June 27, by Rev. E. H. Avery, Mr. William D. Irvine and Miss Panthea L. Kennedy.

SERVANTISM—WHAT IS A HOME WITHOUT A "HELP."—The editor of the Pittsburg Dispatch, who evidently knows "how it is himself," discourses in the following strain about the worth of servantism:

"Servants, as a general thing, are about as great nuisances as can be gathered into the family mansion. For three or four dollars per week you may obtain one of these luxuries, which will, no doubt, prove about as useful as a fifth wheel of a wagon. "Have you hot and cold water in the kitchen?" "Who carries the coals?" Does the missus allow the girl to have company in the parlor twice a week?" are some of the questions put to the unfortunate female head of a family by some of the applicants for situations, to say nothing of "Do you give shirts out?"

Some enterprising man, with a slight cash capital, should visit Hindoostan, Guatemala, the rock of Gibraltar, or some other neighboring locality, and secure several ship loads of some kind of girls who cannot talk English and never expect to learn. A lot of girls who are ignorant of what "fellows" are, and who don't go to church more than six times on a Sunday. No objections to them retaining their original costume, provided it consist of a little more than a pair of ear-rings. Let them be brought to Pittsburg and a training school opened for them. Teach them to scrub stairs both ways—from the bottom up, and from the top down. The first one that wants to go out two evenings a week let her be shot on the spot, under a special act of assembly provided for the case.

Do not allow them to talk to the girl next door, or to sweep the front pavement while all the other girls in the row are sweeping the front pavement. This breeds familiarity, and familiarity breeds contempt for the missus. Any girl who tells another girl that she knows a place up town where the other girls will have less work and get a "quarter" a week more, will be gently assassinated or ducked in a frogpond, according to an old rule. "Ten minutes under water and one above, for the space of thirty-three minutes." She would scarcely need more than one ten minutes' dose. That would arrange her for presentation to the coroner. A few kind examples of this sort might make a little reform in the present state of affairs in our back kitchens, and not interfere with the early piety of any of the household.

CHARLES MATTHEWS.—The death of Mr. Charles Matthews, the English comedian is announced by telegraph. He was born in London, and made his first appearance on the stage in his native city in December, 1835. He came to this country in 1857, and made his debut at the Park theatre in New York. In the following year he was married to Madame Vestris, with whom he returned to England, where she died in 1856. In 1857 Mr. Matthews revisited the United States, and played star engagements in all the leading cities. Richmond included. In 1858 he was married to Lizzie Weston, one day after her divorce from Mr. A. H. Davenport, and soon after sailed with her for England. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews returned to the United States a few months ago and were received with marked favor in New York. The death of Mr. Matthews must have been sudden, as there had been no previous intimation of illness.—Rich. Whip.

To the voters of the city and county of Alexandria, Va.—I propose to be a candidate for a seat in the next in December. Delegates from the county of Alexandria, should I find it to be the wish of the people that I should represent them. As early as possible after the adjournment of the present Court, I intend to address the citizens of the city and county upon the questions vitally affecting their interests, which will be brought before the next General Assembly.

CHARLES E. STUART.

DRUGS AND CHEMICALS.

THE SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness of bowels. If general costive, sometimes alternating with laxity.

THE HEAD IS TROUBLED with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensation of having let undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them; but the liver is generally the organ most involved. Cure the liver with

DR. SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.

A preparation of roots and herbs, warranted to be strictly vegetable, and can do no injury to any one.

It has been used by hundreds, and known for the last 40 years as one of the most reliable, efficacious and harmless preparations ever offered to the suffering. It cures the liver regularly and persistently, it is sure to cure

THE FOLLOWING WILL BE READ WITH INTEREST:

Under date of April 26th, 1871, Dr. HENRY J. ROGERS, 68 Sharp street, Baltimore, an eminent physician, writes regarding

CRYSTAL DISCOVERY.

"It affords me much pleasure to bear testimony as to the efficacy of your Crystal Discovery. Some years since, while in India, I suffered from a severe fever peculiar to the country. On my recovery, a patch of hair on the left side of my head became perfectly white, without at all affecting the remainder. To remove this unsightly appearance, I had recourse to various preparations, both in Europe and in this country; but they all had one great defect—they dyed the hair black. Now, with your Crystal Discovery, I can get the desired shade—the natural color of my hair being dark brown. I consider your Discovery the best preparation I know of.

Yours truly, HENRY J. ROGERS.

Now as the fact becomes more patent every day that the various dirty and filthy preparations advertised as Renewers, Restoratives, &c., are but compounds of Sugar of Lead and Sulphur, and therefore should be shunned by all who value their health, it is scarcely a matter of surprise that the demand for NATTAN'S CRYSTAL DISCOVERY, admitted to be perfectly harmless, and yet accomplish all, and more, than the poisonous articles claim to do, should have increased so rapidly. It restores the color and growth of the hair positively in a few days; strengthens the roots, makes an excellent dressing, soiling neither clothes nor scalp; but on the contrary it gives the scalp a pure and cleanly look, removing all dandruff and seurf. It is the most economical preparation in use. Put up in large bottles, at one dollar.
